

Symposium – Women’s Rights

17 May 14h-17h, Kamerlingh Onnes building C006

Introduction 14h00-14h05

Women's Rights in the Law School (Aleydis Nissen)

Marriage 14h05-14h40

Disabled Women's Marital Autonomy in China: Case Study (Naxigu Ye)

Forced Marriage as an International Crime (Vittoria De Bortoli)

Love, Arranged Marriages, Forced Conversion, and Honour Killings: a South Asian Woman’s Prison (Mehda Garg & Aman Gul)

Violence against Women 14h40-15h10

Son Preference, Masculinity and Intimate Partner Violence in India (Falguni Singh)

From Law to Practice: Challenges of Fighting Domestic Violence in Brazil (Clara Vale Corvello)

Retraumatization of Sexual Assault Victims in Russia (Melaniya Maslova)

Sexual and Reproductive Rights 15h10-15h50

Trafficking in Persons and Prostitution in Thailand (Waranya Areerom)

Criminalisation of Virginity Testing in Turkey (Deniz Tirit)

Sex Work in a Digital Age - The impact of platforms like OnlyFans (Mareike Schorr)

Fighting for the Right to Safe and Legal Abortion in the Americas (Andrea Olivares Jones)

Break 15h50-15h55

The ‘Undesirables’ 15h55-16h25

Mapuche Indigenous Women: from a Postcolonial Feminist and Intersectional Perspective (Valentina Vivallo Toro)

When Sitting Down Becomes “Haram” : the Reality of Women Migrant Domestic Workers in Lebanon (Myriam Whaibe)

The Women’s Rights Movement’s Influence on Other Social Justice Movements (Cağrı Sahin)

Breaking Barriers 16h25-16h55

German Feminist Foreign Policy (Kushvar Babayeva)

Medical Research and Care: The Invisible Patients (Claire Chauffard)

The ‘Radical’ Imagination of Feminists: to Abolish the Family (Leyang Fu)

Wrap-up 16h55-17h

Women's Rights in the Law School (Aleydis Nissen)